No.of Student & Faculty Attended: 88

Description of the activity:

Dayanand Education Society, Dayanand College of Pharmacy, Latur, organized workshop of Mr. Sachin Kumbhoje and Ms. Anjori Kumbhoje on topic entitled "Skill and Employment Development". Ms. Satpute K.L was welcome the speaker and provide the information about the college, courses run by the college and various activities conducted by the college. Dr. Chau W.N. has given the brief introduction about the Speaker and requested to start the session.

Mr. Sachin Kumbhoje elaborately discussed with our faculty and pharmacy students about the topic. Sir has told that skills development can reduce un- and underemployment, increase productivity, and improve standards of living. Helping people develop and update their skills makes economic sense and there are three core values of development: (i) sustenance, (ii) self- esteem, and (iii) freedom.

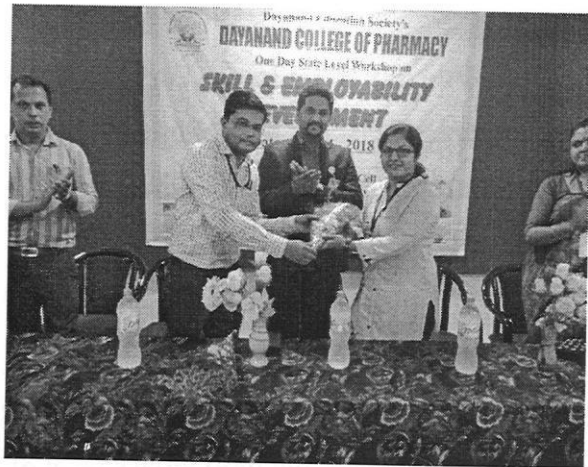

At the end Ms. Anjori Kumbhoje has discussed about the topic that the professional development goals are objectives you can set for yourself to help further your career. These might include taking steps to learn relevant skills, expand your professional network, or find more satisfaction at work. Madam also highlighted that there are specific steps that an individual should undertake to acquire new skills and knowledge to help them perform better in their job. This can include instruction on working more productively, improving communication skills, developing a network of contacts, and identifying future career opportunities.

Dr. Chauhan W.N as training and placement Incharge has expressed the vote of thanks for interacting and sharing the ideas with students in this workshop.
